

CSMS: Sam Rayburn Museum and Library

Bonham, Texas

Overview

- Sam Rayburn Museum and Library (1957)
- Museum Archiving
- Bonham Quilt Hop
 - 'Dreaming of the Stars'
 - Historical Recording and Preservation
- Designing A Display

Archiving Floor and Vault

- Library and Museum Floor Displays
- The Vault
- Recognizing and Recording Condition

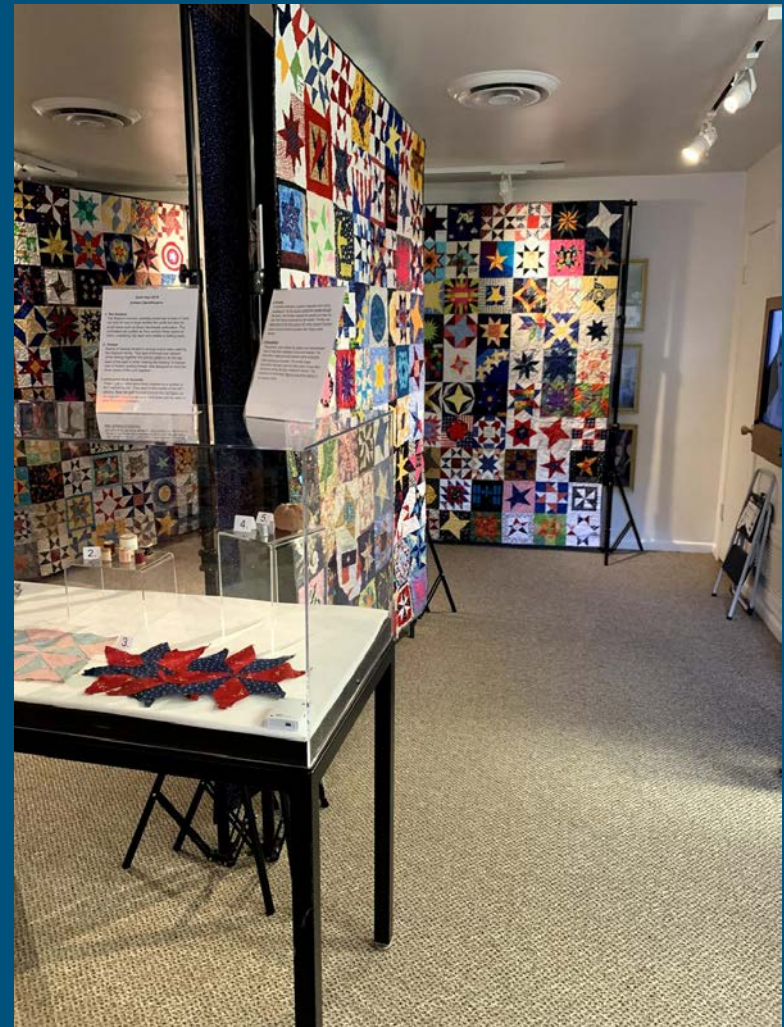

Bonham Quilt Hop

- Annual event with a large pull
- Across the city in multiple locations
 - Displays
 - Demonstrations
 - Vendors
- 'Dreaming of the Stars'
 - Guest Display
 - Borrowed from UT Austin Briscoe Center

Dreaming of the Stars

- Karen Nyberg (2013)
 - NASA Astronaut I.S.S.
 - Facebook Live Challenge
- 2014 International Quilt Festival
 - Houston, Texas
- Around 2,400 Squares
 - 28 quilts (8 across, 10 down)
 - 2 larger (9 across, 10 down)
 - Kid quilt
 - Russia, Canada, Ireland, Mexico, Uruguay, Israel, etc.
- Archival Historical Preservation

Museum Curation

- Temporary Displays
 - Themes
 - Review previous displays in the past few years
 - Cross compare lists
 - Begin process of laying out
 - Display!

Fall 2018 - Summer 2019 Display

Final Display (pt.1)

- Pop Media Items
 - (top shelf)
- Youth based Awards
 - (2nd down shelf)
 - 4H, Boy Scouts, etc.
- Commemorative / Collector Items
 - (3rd down)
- Antique Timepieces
 - (bottom shelf)

Cigar and Cigarette Display (Above Left)
Sam Rayburn Testimonial Dinner (Above Right)
Texas Gavels (Right)

Acknowledgements

A big thank you to Austin College, those in charge of the CSMS internship, Emma, Kim, Pam, and everyone I worked with in the Bonham community for this wonderful opportunity to learn more about the museum process and get up close and personal with artifacts!